

Tasmanian Gourmet Cheese Trail

This trail takes you to some of the best cheese producers in Australia, and all among the green fields of pristine Tasmania. For the cheese-lover this trail truly has an amazing variety to suit any palate...cow, goat, sheep...hard, soft, semi-hard...pasteurised, unpasteurised...and the impressive list just goes on. A specialty cream & butter producer is also included on the trail. Once you have picked up your favourite selections chances are that producer has an online store to replenish your home larder.

Hi Adam, saw this specialty cheese maker trail in Tasmania. Reckon our producers can create something similar as we are well known for our Pinot Noir, as well as our Honey and Olives. Maybe even a 'Trophy Trail' as they have won so many awards over the past years! Lets talk to our grower organisations about this promotional option. Regards.....Jen
