Mountain Tablelands Food Trail

The Mountain Tablelands Food Trail is the high altitude southern region of rolling green hills where the lush green pastures produce some of the creamiest dairy products in Australia. Accessible from either the Palmerston Hwy from the south (Cassowary Coast), The Kennedy Hwy from the North (Savannah Tablelands) or up the scenic Gillies Hwy from Gordonvale, (just south of Cairns. This area is full of natural attractions and home to the Waterfall Circuit and Misty Mountains Trails around the Millaa Millaa, Malanda, Atherton, Yungaburra.

So glad that you and Bill can join us for a few days to see the Atherton Tablelands. Been a while since our two families have been on a road trip together. I found this local food trail that you can follow, which is right where we are headed. Why don't we meet up at the Visitor Information Centre at Mareeba at 10am on Monday, and I figured we would finish at the Millaa Millaa Hotel. The kids are so excited about the trip. See you soon.....Erica
